SALEM CHURCH
Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania National Military Park

This simple Baptist Church, built in 1844, played a major role during the Civil War, serving at various times as a refugee center for civilians and as a field hospital. Salem Church was the scene of a bitter struggle on May 3-4, 1863.

Photo by Larry Davis

Eastern National Park & Monument Assn.

Plastichrome®
© COLOURPICTURE
BOSTON, MASS. 02130

P314314

POST CARD